Happy Hour Friday

Please join us for a virtual happy hour from 4-5ish on Friday afternoon. Bring your own wine, appetizers and furry friends. Zoom link has been sent out. Or, here:

Angie suggested we have a simple rule for happy hour..."Happy Hour should be HAPPY!" I agree. So, everyone please bring a piece of good news to share. What a great way to end the week and start the weekend.

I'm trying to use my third eye to figure out when we can open!

See you Friday,
Scott
